ZELIG FILMS ON TOUR

Apr 11 2017

In the upcoming weeks, some of the last graduation films will participate at different international film festivals.

Hidden Photos (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6SmuPmIGJjk>) and The Good Intentions (<https://vimeo.com/193933998>) will be part of the official program of the International Documentary Film Festival Premio Marcellino De Baggis (<http://www.marcellinodebaggis.it/>), in the category 'Mistero'. The festival has arrived at its third edition, and it is dedicated to the memory of Marcellino de Baggis, who has been an Italian director and director of photography, graduated in Film Studies at the UCLA - University of California, who passed away at the age of 40, in 2011. The festival will take place in Taranto, in the south of Italy, from the 3. to the 7. May.

Vergot (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kDTv_lbT0Uw) will be part of the official program of the Trento Film Festival (<http://trentofestival.it/>), in the 'Orizzonti Vicini' program. The film will be screened on Saturday, 29. April at 21.30h, and on Wednesday, 3. May at 15.15h.

For those who want to fire (Per chi vuole sparare) (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PmAfGSiK2sw>) will be part of the main competition of the Working Title Film Festival (<http://www.workingtitlefilmfestival.it/en/>), which is a young festival born in 2016 to give space to independent audiovisual productions dealing with the world of work and the several topics connected to it, through original points of view and languages.

The festival will take place from 27. April to 1. May in Vicenza, in the north of Italy, and the film will be screened on the recurrence of the Worker's Day, 1. May.
